2009 Sandpipers Fashion Show Auction Guidelines

Rules for Silent Auction Bidding:

- A bid sheet will be displayed with each package. You may bid on packages by placing your bidder sticker with your assigned bidder number next to the amount you wish to bid. All bid amounts will be pre-printed on the bid sheet. After you have placed your bidder sticker on the bid sheet it may not be removed. Nothing other than a bidder sticker with an assigned bidder number will constitute a valid bid on a bid sheet.
- You can automatically win an auction package by placing a bidder sticker next to the “Guaranteed Purchase” amount indicated in the lower right corner of a bid sheet and notifying an Auction Attendant that you have made a “Guaranteed Purchase”. The package’s bid sheet will immediately be removed and no additional bids will be accepted.
- Silent Auction bidding will end for all packages at approximately 12:15 p.m. The person whose assigned bidder number appears opposite the highest bid when the Silent Auction closes is the winner and will purchase the package.

Procedures for Silent Auction Check Out:

- Sandpipers is pleased to present ExpressPay for all Silent Auction bidders. The ExpressPay process works like this: You will be asked to swipe your credit card at Fashion Show Registration. We will print a $0.00 receipt for your signature. If you are the successful bidder on a Silent Auction package, we will use this credit card to process your payment for your package(s). (No more standing in line to check out!) If you do not make any Silent Auction purchases, your credit card will not be charged.
- Sandpipers requires that all purchases be paid in full at the event. Available payment methods for Silent Auction are American Express, VISA, and MasterCard credit cards swiped via ExpressPay only.
- If you are the successful bidder on a package(s), a receipt will be brought to you at your table during the Fashion Show/Luncheon. Your Silent Auction package(s) will be ready for immediate pickup as you are exiting the event.
